SCRIPTURE READING

Read: Psalm 46:10 (Read for all versions present)

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

• It's not about what you do. It's about why you do it. But you can't know the what or the why, without knowing the who.

• START THINKING

Read: Luke 4:16-21

*And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. And as was his custom, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read. And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written,
"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."
And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. And he began to say to them, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."*

Did Jesus know His why? What is it? How does it apply to you?

What do you think is important about "being still" in front of God in regards to Psalm 46:10?

• START SHARING

Do you ever get your what, why, and who (God) out of order? How does that look in your life?

Are there any parts of your life that lack a why behind them?

Think back to the video Michael Jr. showed of his baby daughter. Do you know your heavenly Father's voice like that? If you have one, share a story of a time you heard His voice.

What's something you wish you could hear from God about?

• START DIGGING

Read: John 10:27

Psalm 46:10

Romans 10:17

Luke 4:16-21

• START DOING

What can you do to filter out all the other voices to hear your heavenly Father's voice?

PERSONAL REFLECTION

Are you still wondering what your why is? If so, ask God to reveal His heart to you and His plans for your life.

THIS WEEK'S CHALLENGE

It's not about what you do. It's about why you do it. But you can't know the what or the why, without knowing the who. Read Psalm 46:10 daily and allow this verse to resonate in your Spirit.
